Dear Fellow Hawkeyes,

Whether you are an incoming freshman or a returning senior, it is important to THINK if you DRINK.

From tailgating on game days to the Ped Mall on Friday nights, we must remember that our attitudes and actions are a reflection of the entire University of Iowa community.

Our time at Iowa is one of growth and opportunity, and it is our duty as students to make the most of it. Your behavior always counts, so THINK if you DRINK.

Have Fun, Be Smart, and GO HAWKS.

John Rigby
UISG President

Erica Hayes
UISG Vice President

uisg.uiowa.edu
In accordance with University of Iowa policy, students are expected to abide by the laws concerning controlled substances and alcoholic beverages. Students in violation of state or federal laws may face criminal prosecution, and the University will discipline students who possess or use illegal drugs or alcohol on or off campus. Sanctions which may be imposed for possession or use of alcohol and other drugs in violation of the Code of Student Life include a written warning, parent/guardian notification (under 21), probation, cancellation of Housing contract, mandatory substance abuse evaluation, completion of alcohol/drug education and counseling program, suspension, or expulsion.

Recognized student organizations which fail to comply with University regulations governing alcohol and other drugs may be disciplined by an appropriate governing body. In addition, the Dean of Students may revoke their University recognition.

PARTY SMART

Tips for Staying Safe and Not Getting Busted

Fake ID Laws & Fines
Knowing the consequences of misrepresenting yourself using a fake ID
- Fake ID: $161.25
- Using Fake ID to purchase alcohol: $195

Paula Laws & Fines
PAULA (possession of alcohol under legal age): $330

Think If You Drink
- If you choose to drink alcoholic beverages, keep your consumption moderate, and also eat food
- Take responsibility for your friends who may be visiting; their actions may come back to bite YOU in the butt
- Drink water throughout the night and eat before you head out
- Keep track of your drink at all times

How to Stay Safe
- Attend with a friend and look out for each other
- Leave your valuables at home. Carry only your ID and money you’ll need for that night
- If you choose to be sexually active, bring and use condoms and other latex barriers

Abstain From Drinking
- Sometimes the smartest choice is not to drink. It can keep you out of trouble, and don’t forget, you’re not alone

Tips for Party Hosts
- Know your guests
- Keep your party inside, or at least keep the noise inside
- Beware of what you have posted on Facebook and the people that could have seen it

Why Beer Pong Is Nasty
- Sharing cups means sharing germs
- Floatees – the yummy things hanging out on the floor – will inevitably end up in your cup
- Drinking games encourage overconsumption and unsafe intoxication levels, which could lead to health issues happening at your party

UNIVERSITY SANCTIONS

In accordance with University of Iowa policy, students are expected to abide by the laws concerning controlled substances and alcoholic beverages. Students in violation of state or federal laws may face criminal prosecution, and the University will discipline students who possess or use illegal drugs or alcohol on or off campus. Sanctions which may be imposed for possession or use of alcohol and other drugs in violation of the Code of Student Life include a written warning, parent/guardian notification (under 21), probation, cancellation of Housing contract, mandatory substance abuse evaluation, completion of alcohol/drug education and counseling program, suspension, or expulsion. Recognized student organizations which fail to comply with University regulations governing alcohol and other drugs may be disciplined by an appropriate governing body. In addition, the Dean of Students may revoke their University recognition.